

INDEX

1. Introduction	4
The current situation	4
Safeguards	6
Inclusion	9
(a) Current processes for compliance promotion in disability discrimination law	11
i. Policy and legislation	11
ii. Action Plans	13
Evaluation	15
(b) Other mechanisms available for compliance promotion	15
i. Regulation.	15
ii. Standards	16
Steps for developing effective standards	17
Problems with standards	20
(c) Mechanisms available in other areas of law for compliance promotion	21
Auditor General	21
Legislative reviews	22
2. Overseas compliance promotion through mandatory reporting of progress	22
(a) Legal cases in USA	22
b) Processes in the USA	27
Background	27
Substantive Principles	28
Determining Program and Placement	30
Independent Review	31
Compliance Monitoring	35
Summary of the US Monitoring and Compliance	36
Evaluation of the Pennsylvania Model	37
Practices in Other States	39
Broader Discrimination Issues in the USA	41
c) Practices in other Countries	42
d) Recommendations for Australia from a US perspective	47

3. Outline of possible models	48
a) Preventative Methods to Minimise Discrimination	48
i.) At legislative level	48
ii) Standards	50
iii) Policy	51
iv) Internal performance audits	51
v) External reporting of performance	52
vi) Action plans	52
vii) Mandatory audits by the Auditor General.	53
b) Methods to Correct Discrimination that is occurring	54
i.) Due process	54
ii) Independent appeal processes	55
iii) Financial penalties to systems that fail to conform.	56
c) Developmental measures that may have longer term impacts.	57
i) Training	57
ii) Centres of excellence	57
4. Some key issues for decision	58
5. Appendices	59
Appendix 1	60
Appendix 2	66
Appendix 3	67
Appendix 4	78
6. Notes	85
7. References and Bibliography	86